Hey Jo,

My name is Patrick Greene and I am a member of a group called Humanities Behind Bars (HBB). We are a group dedicated to building solidarity between the community and incarcerated people as well as prison education. One of the ways we try to build solidarity is by maintaining a pen-pal program. I am writing to you now because you are in our database as someone looking for a pen-pal! I work as a technical writer in Chesapeake. I like to run and do yoga in my spare time.

If you are interested, I would be happy to be your pen-pal. I'd like to know what you would like from a pen-pal as well. Do you want someone to exchange letters with every once in a while, someone to tell about how things are going, or is there something you really want to express through writing or art? Feel free to let me know.

I am excited to get to know you and exchange letters! If you have friends or know someone else who might also like a pen-pal, feel free to share that information with me and I can make sure that HBB connects one of our members with a new pen-pal. Our group meets at least once a month specifically to write letters, so we all will have time set aside to write at least that often!

I look forward to hearing from you soon.

Sincerely,

Patrick Greene
